Director of Medical Center Purchasing

With a strong commitment to raising the bar for healthcare in our community, Nassau University Medical Center is a Level I Trauma Center and a 530-bed teaching hospital affiliated with the Northwell Health Care System and Stony Brook University. The NuHealth System also includes a 589-bed Extended Care Facility and five Community Health Centers. NuHealth is a Long Island-based health system committed to delivering coordinated medical care and disease and lifestyle management to everyone, at every stage of life.

NUMC currently seeks a well-qualified leader to serve as Director of Medical Center Purchasing to direct the procurement and purchasing function for the NuHealth system which includes Nassau University Medical Center and its affiliated locations. The position is responsible for management and supervision of the Supply Chain, Procurement, Stores & Inventory Control and other related functions. The ideal candidate will have experience in the management of sourcing and purchasing Hospital and Extended Care Facility medical supplies, materials and equipment. The incumbent will be responsible for compliance with necessary controls, policies and auditing requirements. Position will be interface with all levels of employee and management.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Accounting, Finance, Health Care Administration, Health Care Management, Public Administration or equivalent.
- At least five years of experience as an administrative leader, division head or other significant leadership role in a Health Care environment. Experience in excess of the five year requirement may be substituted for education on a year for year basis.

We offer exceptional benefits including medical, dental, pension and much more! For immediate consideration please email a resume and a letter of interest placing Service Excellence in the subject line to: careers@numc.edu. An EOE m/f/d/v