Procurement Law Requirements

State Finance Law §§ 139-j and 139-k (collectively, the “Procurement Requirements”) apply to this sealed bid. The Procurement Requirements (1) govern permissible communications between potential respondents and NHCC with respect to this sealed bid during the procurement process; and (2) establish sanctions for knowing and willful violations of the provisions of the Procurement Requirements, including disqualification from eligibility for an award of any contract pursuant to this solicitation.

Compliance with the Procurement Requirements requires that (a) all communications regarding this sealed bid, from the issuance of this sealed bid through final award and approval of any resulting contract (the “Restricted Period”), be conducted only with the buyer listed on the first page of this bid; (b) the completion by respondents of the Offerer Disclosure of Prior Non-Responsibility Determinations and the Offerer’s Affirmation of Understanding of and Agreement pursuant to State Finance Law, copies of which are attached to this sealed bid as attachments to Appendix A, and (c) periodic updating of such forms during the term of any contract resulting from this sealed bid. Respondents must submit both of these forms, properly completed, as part of their proposals. The Procurement Requirements also require NHCC employees to obtain and report certain information when contacted by prospective bidders during the Restricted Period, make a determination of the responsibility of bidders and make all such information publicly available in accordance with applicable law. If a prospective bidder is found to have knowingly and willfully violated the State Finance Law provisions, that prospective bidder and its subsidiaries, related or successor entities will be determined to be a non-responsible bidder and will not be awarded any contract issued pursuant to this sealed bid.

A copy of the State Finance Law Sections 139-j and 139-k can be found at <http://www.ogs.state.ny.us/aboutogs/regulations/advisoryCouncil/StatutoryReferences.html>. All potential Respondents are solely responsible for full compliance with the Procurement Requirements.
