NASSAU UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER
DEPARTMENT OF ANESTHESIOLOGY
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Question: How do I apply to your program?
Answer: ERAS only.

Question: How do I communicate with the program?
Answer: We strongly encourage candidates to communicate via email. The address is hgagg@numc.edu.

Question: What is the deadline?
Answer: There is no deadline.

Question: Are foreign medical graduates accepted?
Answer: Yes.

Question: What are the minimum score requirements?
Answer: There are no minimum score requirements.

Question: What is the status of my application?
Answer: You will be e-mailed if you are selected for an interview.

Question: What visas do you sponsor?
Answer: Only J-1 is accepted.

Question: How many positions are there?
Answer: There are 5 positions for each year.

Question: Is a clinical base required?
Answer: Yes, an ACGME or AOA approved clinical base is required.

Question: Is U.S. experience required?
Answer: Yes, a clinical base is required. Please see above.

Question: Will you provide the clinical base?
Answer: We can arrange for a clinical base in our Department of Surgery. For osteopathic students, the hospital has an AOA rotating internship.

Question: Do I need to apply separately to Surgery?
Answer: No. We will forward appropriate applications.

Question: If I already am doing a clinical base, can this be accepted?
Answer: Yes, but the first CA-1 position available is for July 2010.

Question: How do I get to Nassau University Medical Center?
Answer: You may access travel directions at the hospital WEB site, www.numc.edu

Question: Is an ECFMG certificate required to apply?
Answer: Yes.

Question: Do you participate in the Match?
Answer: Yes. However, applicants not required to utilize the match may be hired outside the Match.

For additional information go to www.numc.edu