

Minimum Core Elements of Required
Course Work or Training in Infection Prevention and Control

Element I

The responsibility to adhere to scientifically accepted principles and practices of infection prevention and control and to monitor the performance of those for whom the professional is responsible.

Element II

Modes and mechanisms of transmission of pathogenic organisms in the healthcare setting and strategies for prevention and control.

Element III

Use of engineering and work practice controls to reduce the opportunity for patient and healthcare worker contact with potentially infectious material for bloodborne pathogens.

Element IV

Selection and use of barriers and/or personal protective equipment for preventing patient and healthcare worker contact with potentially infectious material.

Element V

Creation and maintenance of a safe environment for patient care through application of infection prevention and control principles and practices for cleaning, disinfection, and sterilization.

Element VI

Prevention and management of infectious or communicable diseases in healthcare workers. Safe Injection Practices

Element VII

Prevention, early recognition, identification, diagnosis, and management of SEPSIS

New York State Department of Health and
State Education Department

Mandatory Infection
Prevention and Control
& Barrier Precaution
Mandatory Training

2020 Schedule

All Classes : 1 :00 PM to 3 :00 PM

*Friday, February 21
Friday, April 17
Friday, June 12
Friday, August 14
Friday, October 16
Friday, December 11*

Joel Robbins Library
2nd Floor DCB
2201 Hempstead Turnpike
East Meadow , NY 11554

Registration Fee:
Employees: $ 35.00
Non-Employees: 40.00

Please make check payable to:
Nassau Health Care Foundation
Grant # 173090

Nassau University Medical Center

Infection Prevention and Control Department
2201 Hempstead Turnpike
East Meadow, NY 11554
2nd Floor E Building Room 232

Direction:

From the west: Take Hempstead Tpk. and turn left on Carman Ave.. Take the Carman Avenue entrance to the parking lot. Take the Carman Ave. entrance to the hospital, the Joel Robbins Library is on the DCB (Main Hospital Building) 3rd Floor. On right side of 3rd Floor Lobby is the OB-GYN Office, take the hallway on the left side of the OB-GYN Office and go thru the door to the classroom (Joel Robbins Library).

This course will satisfy 4.2 Contact Hours

Registration Form

Please complete and mail or fax this form to:
Phey Kabigting MSN, APRN-BC, CIC
Nassau University Medical Center
2201 Hempstead Turnpike
Infection Prevention and Control Dept.
2nd Floor E-Building, , Room 232
East Meadow NY 11554
Fax # : (516) 572-3384

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ NY

Zip: _____ Tele #: _____

Email: _____

For questions or information contact:
Phey Kabigting MSN, APRN-C, CIC
pkabigti@numc.edu
Tel#: (516) 296-3378