1. Bids on equipment must be standard new equipment, latest model, except as otherwise specifically stated in proposal or detailed specification. Where any party of nominal appurtenances to equipment is not described, it shall be understood that all equipment and appurtenances which are usually provided in the manufacturer's stock model shall be furnished.

2. Bids on materials and supplies must be for new items except as otherwise specifically stated in bid or detailed specification.

3. Bidder declares that the bid is made without any connection with any other Bidder, submitting a bid for the same items, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.

4. PRICES The provisions of the New York State Fair Trade Law (Fed-Crawford Act) and the federal price discrimination law (Robinson-Patman Act) do not apply to purchases made by the Nassau Health Care Corporation.

5. SURETY In the event that an award is made hereunder, The Director of Purchase, Nassau University Medical Center, (hereinafter referred to as the Director of Purchase) reserves the right to require successful bidders to post, within one week, security for faithful performance with the understanding that the whole or any part thereof may be used by the Nassau Health Care Corporation to supply any deficiency that may arise from any default on the part of the Bidder. Such security must meet all the requirements of the County Attorney and be approved by the Nassau Health Care Corporation Attorney.

6. SAMPLES Samples, when required, must be submitted strictly in accordance with instructions, otherwise bids may not be considered. If samples are requested subsequent to bid opening they shall be delivered within five (5) days of the request for bid to have consideration. Samples must be furnished free of charge and must be accompanied by descriptive memorandum invoices indicating if the Bidder desires their return, also specifying the address to which they are to be returned, provided they have not been used or made useless by tests. A sample may be held for comparison with deliveries.

7. AWARDS The Director of Purchase reserves the right before making an award to make investigations as to whether or not the items, qualifications or facilities offered by the Bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are ample and sufficient to insure the proper performance in the event of award. The Bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director of Purchase to present evidence of experience, ability and financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery and capacity of the manufacturer for the production and distribution of the materials on which he is bidding. Upon request of the Director of Purchase, successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the bids are not compiled with or that articles or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualifications, financial standing or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director of Purchase may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director of Purchase to make any examinations before award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it is in no way relieves the Bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

8. Awards will be made to the lowest responsible Bidder. Cash discounts will not be a factor in determining awards, except in tie bids. Consideration will be given to the reliability of the Bidder, the quality of the materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, their conformity with the specifications, the purpose for which required and the terms of delivery.

9. The Director of Purchase reserves the right to reject any and all bids in whole or in part and to waive technical defects, irregularities and omissions if in his judgment the best interests of the Nassau Health Care Corporation will be served.

10. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the Director of Purchase reserves the right to make award by items, by classes, by groups of items or as a whole.

11. DELIVERIES Upon failure of the Vendor to deliver within the time specified, or within reasonable time as interpreted by the Director of Purchase, or failure to make replacement of rejected articles, when so requested immediately or as directed by the Director of Purchase. The Director of Purchase may purchase from other sources to take the place of the item rejected or not delivered. The Director of Purchase reserves the right to authorize immediate purchase from other sources against rejections on any order when necessary. On all such purchases the Vendor agrees to promptly reimburse the Nassau Health Care Corporation for excess cost occasioned by such purchases. Should the cost be less, the Vendor shall have no claim against the difference. Such purchases will be deducted from order quantity.

12. An order may be cancelled at the Vendor's expense upon nonperformance. Failure of the Vendor to furnish additional surplus within ten (10) days from date of request shall be sufficient cause for the cancellation of the order.

13. When in the determination of the Director of Purchase, the articles or equipment delivered fail to meet Nassau Health Care Corporation specifications or, if in the determination of the Director of Purchase, consignee fails to deliver as ordered, the Director of Purchase, reserves the right to cancel the order and purchase the balance from other sources at the Vendor's expense.

14. Delivery must be made as ordered and in accordance with the bid. If delivery instructions do not appear on order, it will be interpreted to mean prompt delivery.

15. The Nassau University Medical Center will not schedule any deliveries for Saturdays, Sundays or Legal Holidays, except commodities required for daily consumption or where the delivery is an emergency, a replacement, or is overdue, in which event the convenience of the Agency will govern.

16. Supplies shall be securely and properly packed for shipment, according to accepted commercial practice, without extra charge for packing cases, reels, bailing or sacks, the containers to retain the property of the Agency unless definitely stated otherwise in the bid.

17. The Vendor shall be responsible for delivery of supplies in good condition at point of destination. The Vendor shall file all claims with carrier for breakage, imperfections and other losses, which will be deducted from invoices. The receiving Agency will note for the benefit of Vendor when packages are not received in good condition.

18. All supplies which are customarily labeled or identified must have securely affixed thereto the original label of the manufacturer or marking of the manufacturer.

20. Furniture, machines, and other equipment must be delivered, installed and set in place as directed, ready for use unless otherwise specified.

21. Deliveries are subject to reweighing at destination by the Nassau Health Care Corporation and payment will be made on the basis of net weight of materials delivered. Normal shrinkage will be allowed in such instances where shrinkage is possible. Short weight shall be sufficient cause for cancellation of order at Vendor's expense.

22. GUARANTEES BY BIDDER Bidder hereby guarantees: (a) To save the Nassau Health Care Corporation, its' agents and employees harmless from liability of any nature or kind for the use of any copyrighted or uncopied composition, secret process, patented or unpatented invention, article or appliance furnished or used in performance hereof of which the Bidder is not the Patentee, assignee or licensee, and to defend and hold the Nassau Health Care Corporation and the Director of Purchase, his agents and employees harmless from any claim, suit or action brought through malfunction, or defect in any such composition, process, invention, article or appliance, which in any way is the cause of any injury, death, or damage to person or property, coming directly or indirectly from the performance of its obligations hereunder or marking of the manufacturer.

23. LABOR LAWS AND ANTI-DISCRIMINATION Upon the vendor's acceptance hereof, the vendor agrees to comply with Article IX, Section 2C of the Constitution of the State of New York, Section 220, 220a, 220b, 220d, 220e and 230 of the Labor Law, Section 5 and 12 of the Lien Law, Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code, Section 108 and 109 as well as Article 18 of the General Municipal Law, Section 22-4-2 of the Nassau County Administrative Code, the provisions of the Anti-Discrimination Order of Nassau County, and the vendor shall keep himself fully informed of all additional municipal ordinances and regulations. State and National Laws in any manner affecting this order and the goods or services delivered or rendered or to be delivered or rendered hereunder, and shall at all times observe and comply with said ordinances, laws and regulations at its sole cost and expense.

24. ASSIGNMENT The contractor is hereby prohibited from assigning, transferring, conveying, subletting or otherwise disposing of this contract or of his right, title, or interest therein, or his power to execute such contract to any other person or corporation without the previous consent in writing of the officer, board or agency awarding the contract.

25. The Nassau Health Care Corporation will not be responsible nor liable for any shipment or delivery of any materials, supplies, or equipment without its express written instructions or valid Purchase Order.

26. No agreements, changes, modifications or alterations shall be deemed effective nor shall the same be binding upon the Nassau Health Care Corporation unless in writing and signed by the Director of Purchase, or his duly designated representative.
